

Ayoka is a non-descript single, black, female. She is a resident of Hyde Park and lives in a pet and smoke-free home. She's a typical modern woman - college educated, gainfully employed, she pays taxes, votes, hikes and plays pickleball. However, she misses traditional values like, men and children helping women and seniors with groceries, shoveling and mowing lawns. Anyway, why digress? Ayoka's true joy is living from vacation to vacation.
